These schemes come and go, but always irritate me - because they're barely scratching the edge of the obesity iceberg (lettuce). Let's say you get an obese patient to take up the offer of a low calorie shake diet (unlikely), get them to stick to it for several months (more chance of the Government accepting the blame for their cock-ups, quite honestly) and lose the weight.

Remember this all is just the tip of the iceberg. If the last four years has taught us anything, it's that most of us are living in political and ideological silos. What you feel and believe about any one issue varies dramatically from what others feel and believe ? your family may even be divided on the big-ticket issues.
