The Living

Swami Vivekananda was never concerned with world-negating spirituality distanced from the din and bustle of daily living. He was intensely perturbed by the endless suffering of mankind and discovered that the root of all suffering lies in ignorance, disharmony,

divisiveness and
confinement of consciousness within finitudes. His esoteric experience of Advaita
philosophy of vedanta
offered him a unique panacea. In the light of his experience of
cosmic
consciousness he found a bridge between science and spirituality, between religions and between the mundane and divine. From absolutely secular, scientific and experiential philosophy he developed the concept of practical vedanta as a formula of living. Swamiji prescribed the following motto of life as Self-realisation and selfless service to humanity: “Atmano

mokshartham
jagaddhitaya cha.”

The twofold
complementary agenda can be best
practised with the concept of practical vedanta which is not a
religious but a
spiritual formula for all.
