The English word gospel literally means "good news" and is found over 75 times in the New Testament. The Greek word is euangelion, which is where we also get our English words evangelist and evangelical. So what is this good news? The short answer is this: the gospel is God's eternal plan to save the world.

The gospel is, broadly speaking, the whole of Scripture; more narrowly, the gospel is the good news concerning Christ and the way of salvation. The key to understanding the gospel is to know why it's good news. To do that, we must start with the bad news. The Old Testament Law was given to Israel during the time of Moses (Deuteronomy 5:1).
